Are You Ready to Test Your Recycling IQ?

Get ready to put your recycling knowledge to the test with the interactive waste sorting game Ready, Set, Sort! This online game is designed to educate individuals about proper recycling habits and reduce contamination in a fun and engaging way, all while providing positive reinforcement.

As you progress through each level of the game, you'll have the opportunity to choose from various reward graphics to create your dream park, set against the backdrop of iconic Gainesville landmarks. The objective is simple: drag and drop items into the correct waste stream. You'll receive congratulations for your accuracy each time you successfully sort items. Upon completing each level, you can select a reward to add to your dream park design. And don't miss the special Gainesville Solar Walk reward, available after finishing the final level.

Once you've completed the game, remember to print your certificate of achievement to proudly share with your friends. The best part is that Ready, Set, Sort! is dynamic, changing every time you play. Feel free to replay it as many times as you like to enhance your recycling knowledge, and have a blast while doing so!
